- ✓ Find your sponsors. Ask your family and family friends to sponsor you. Sponsors pledge money for students reading for the Read-a-Thon. (Always have a parent or guardian accompany you. Do not solicit door-to-door or talk to strangers.)
- ✓ Add the sponsor's name and pledge amount to the Sponsor List. Ask your sponsors if they can pledge at least $1 for each book or 30 minute period you read. (Sponsors can indicate a maximum pledge if they want.) You may add sponsors at any time over the course of the Read-a-Thon. Be sure to thank your sponsors!
- ✓ Set a goal for how many books you hope to read. Record your goal on the Sponsor List and Reading List. Be sure to tell all your sponsors how many books you plan to read.
- ✓ March 1- 29: Read! Read! Read! All reading during the Read-a-Thon counts - even the stuff for homework.
- ✓ Reading Passport: List your reading in your passport and rate it by coloring in the stars. It can be a book, a chapter, an article in a magazine or newspaper, homework or leisure reading.
- ✓ Stamping Station: Log your reading, one page per week and have it officially stamped. Every week you will receive a new souvenir. Remember, you can log a chapter for novels or short articles from newsletters or magazines and of course, a book.
- ✓ Lending Library: Did you know we have a Lending Library in the Blue Area? Drop off a book you've read, pick up one to read. It's open during school hours.
